

FoNT 2008

Foundations of Native Title

The Foundations of Native Title (FoNT) program consists of a three-day workshop for Native Title Representative Body (NTRB) staff. The program is intended for all NTRB staff including field officers, legal staff, anthropologists, researchers and administrative staff. It is particularly relevant to new staff with little or no experience of working in native title.

The FoNT program offers an introduction to working in native title and in an NTRB. The three day workshop aims for participants to acquire and extend skills and knowledge related to their native title work.

Workshop topics and themes include:

- overview of the native title system
- history and development of native title and native title law
- overview of the role, responsibilities and functions of NTRBs
- Roles and responsibilities of NTRB staff
- understanding and managing the stress of native title work
- cultural awareness
- conflict resolution
- presentation skills
- communication skills and processes
- multidisciplinary and multicultural teamwork
